Graduation Celebration!

I am so very grateful for my spiritual awakening to a loving Heavenly Father, God, a brother named Jesus and to the Holy Spirit. For the first time in my life, I feel alive and with so much purpose. I have been blessed with new eyes to see and hear. I have trouble finding the words that could even come close to how I am so very thankful for what God has brought me through and I know he has so much more planned for me and my family. No matter what the enemy sends my way, I know that I am divinely protected. -Sade

I once was lost but now I'm found! Praise the Lord for turning my whole life around. Now moving from my past, I can finally say I am free at last. So many different ways to go, so glad I chose the narrow road! Praise God! -Josephine

I am alive today ONLY because of God. He has turned my whole life upside down. Even though I learned the hard way, it is now His story, so that He may get ALL the glory! Amen!! -Tina

God gave me a firm foundation, NLFMC gave me time to grow. I am now the mother I am meant to be! -Cara

Hallelujah! Praise the Father! Praise the Son! Praise the Spirit, three in One! All Honor and Glory goes to the Father for the testimonies of the women who are graduating in October!! It is a big accomplishment and has taken a whole lot of surrender to His will in exchange for theirs. When the women walk through our doors, they come broken, battered, lost, without hope, and there is evidence that the world has chipped away at their identities!! Some come in and have had encountered the Lord on their paths while living for the world, others know Jesus as their Lord and Savior but have been disconnected leading them into a place of deception, leaving them feeling lost, in need of the Lord's covering to get them refocused, recalibrated, rededicated, and set in the right position to grow in the Lord and to work towards their future in the Lord! But they cannot do that until they have truly come to the end of themselves. Usually, if they are willing and ready to come through our doors, they are ready even if their feelings tell them otherwise. Without a relationship with Jesus, life can be unbearable! I truly do not know how people survive without a relationship with the Father. This world is becoming void of the Spirit of the Lord, and as the seasons come and go so does hope without Jesus! As the time of our Lord's return is approaching, the world only continues to become more wicked; darkness is present at an even greater capacity than ever before!

Isaiah 5:20: "What sorrow for those who say that evil is good and good is evil, that dark is light, and light is dark, that bitter is sweet and sweet is bitter." The Good News is that for believers we do not look on this truth with fear, but with excitement and anticipation of the Word to fulfill its purpose! We believe that all of Heaven is rejoicing that these four women have given their lives to Christ and are now living in the freedom that only He can bring. Let me ask you a question, do you know Jesus as Lord? Do you desire to have the same freedom that these women are living in? And if so, do you know all it takes is repentance of your sin and confession that He is Lord and believe He died for YOU and rose again on the third day? If you already have a relationship with the Lord, I pray that as the world is ever changing and becoming more difficult that you press into truth as if it is the very breath that sustains your spirit to continue to fight the good fight of faith, and along the way bring other souls into the Kingdom! Thank you for your prayers, we covet them!! Thank you for your financial support as we continue to serve these families and lead them into a life with Jesus!
